Hospital 'agonisingly close' to full marks

HONITON Hospital came agonisingly close to full marks in a Patient Environment Action Team (PEAT) inspection.

The annual PEAT inspection covers three areas – food, environment and privacy/dignity.

Community hospitals in Devon were inspected in January and February this year by inspectors who use a five-grade scale, which goes: 1 Unacceptable, 2 Poor, 3 Acceptable, 4 Good and 5 Excellent.

Honiton recorded a hat-trick of top marks last year, but suffered a slight setback this year although the overall result is at the high end of the table.

The hospital retained its top marks for environment and food, but had to settle for Good when it came to privacy/dignity.

Matron Mickie Dicks said: "I am very proud of the housekeeping and catering teams at both Honiton and Ottery St Mary hospitals, who year after year achieve such high standards.

"The cleanliness of both sites is frequently praised by both patients and their relatives, as is the quality of the food.

"It is hard to achieve such high standards and even harder to consistently maintain them."

The hospital is managed by Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust.

Kate Lyons, director of operations for the trust, said: "We are pleased that the majority of our hospitals in East Devon have been rated as excellent all round, and that each one achieved a minimum score of good.

"The issues of cleanliness, food and privacy are very important and we do all we can to provide our

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

AXMINSTER: Pensioner Betty Collier has called for repairs to a dangerous pavement in West Street after suffering facial injuries in a fall earlier this year.

Quotes of the week...

“AT Sidmouth we pride ourselves on a whole team approach. High standards of cleanliness and patient satisfaction regarding environment and food are very important to us. To achieve such a high standard demonstrates the commitment of all staff to the care of our patients.”

Matron Emma Bagwell after hearing that Sidmouth Hospital had won full marks at a recent inspection of food, environment and privacy/dignity.

“I WAS walking along and the next thing I knew I was flying through the air and landed flat on my face. I was a mess and there was an awful lot of blood about.”

Immogen's dilemma

IMOGEN Cairns is considering her future as an international gymnast after competing in the London Olympics.

The 23-year-old, whose family live in the East Devon village of Southleigh, near Colyton, was left disappointed when not selected from the six-strong squad to perform on the floor in Tuesday's team final.

Cairns, who was competing in her second Olympics after making her debut in Beijing four years ago, said she would take time out to consider her future but hinted that it would definitely still lie in athletics but with more emphasis on coaching.

Teenager groomed girl, 12, for sex

AN AXMINSTER man, who had a sexual relationship with a 12-year-old girl, has been sentenced to two years in a young offenders' institution.

At an earlier hearing, Tomas Speed of Kirby Close, Axminster, aged 19, had admitted three offences of statutory rape of a girl under 13, one of possessing an indecent photograph of her and three of taking indecent images of her.

When he re-appeared at Exeter Crown Court for sentencing on Thursday of last week he was told he must spend two years in a young offenders' institution.

He was also described as a loner and he appeared to have become isolated from his friends and family following the death of his father.

Despite intercourse being consensual, Speed was convicted of statutory rape because his victim was under the age of 13.

Because of her young age, the law deems that she cannot have granted consent.

Richard Crabb, prosecuting, said there had been an element of grooming and the pair had sex.

One one occasion, speed filmed sex acts with his mobile phone.

Speed was arrested and immediately confessed.

Defence solicitor Sarah Hornblower, said Speed was very naive and that the girl involved came across as somebody very mature for her age.

Flood relief fund

AXMINSTER'S flood relief fund is yet to receive an application, but mayor Andrew Moulding is not worried.

He is expecting applications in the near future when those affected have had time to meet loss adjusters and calculate exactly what financial damage they have suffered.

Following severe flooding in early July, Axminster Town Council and East Devon District Council set up a joint flood relief fund for those who suffered financially.

It is not known yet how much money there will be in the fund. The town council will announce its donation when it meets next Monday, and EDDC has announced that it will match-fund any donations up to £10,000.

The Rotary Club of Axminster sprung into action and staged a street collection on Thursday, July 26th. Members of the public responded well and a £1,000 cheque was presented.

From the editor's chair Feel good factor returns

I'M NOT going to attempt to describe the pride engendered by the magnificent feats of GB gold medal athletes Jessica Ennis, Mo Farah and Greg Rutherford in the Olympic Stadium on Saturday evening.

In fact, I don't think there is a journalist in the land who could adequately find the words to do justice to such an emotional occasion.

Hence the use of so many full-page, front page photographs in the quality broadsheets on Sunday morning. Never has the old journalistic adage that one picture is worth a thousand words been more apt.

In short, it was simply the greatest day in British sporting history and we will always remember it. After so many months in the doldrums, the feel good factor has definitely returned to these shores. How good is that?

As a fully paid-up member of the sports nut brigade, I can't remember a more emotional occasion, even more so than when England won the World Cup in 1966. I cried more than I did when my first daughter was born.

One of the intended legacies of London 2012 was to inspire more youngsters to take up sport and embrace a healthier lifestyle.

Surely, these inspirational games can't fail to persuade today's young people to discard their X-boxes and get out on the running track, providing the next generation of potential Olympians?

It would be good to wax so lyrical about the GB football team but, alas, yet again they failed when it came to taking penalties. Enough said.

In this corner of East Devon we have our own sporting heroine in the elegant form of three day eventer Mary King, who helped to secure the GB equestrian team a silver medal.

At 51, Mary from Salcombe Regis is the oldest GB competitor and it says much for her dedication to her sport that she is already talking about competing in Rio de Janeiro in 2016, perhaps alongside her daughter, Emily, 16, who is already showing great potential as a future international rider.

Now that would be something to cheer about.

Despite one or two early setbacks, we should acknowledge that the London 2012 organisers, under the inspirational leadership of Lord Coe, have done a brilliant job in staging the Olympics. Go GB!

SEATON

Top patient marks for the hospital

A PATIENT Environment Action Team (PEAT) has given food, environment and privacy/dignity at Seaton Hospital the highest grades possible.

Community hospitals in Devon were inspected in January and February this year and Seaton Hospital improved compared to last year.

Not that there was much room for improvement as the hospital got top marks for food and privacy/dignity, and 'Good' for environment last time around.

Inspectors use a five-grade scale: 1 Unacceptable, 2 Poor, 3 Acceptable, 4 Good and 5 Excellent.

Matron Emma Bagwell was very pleased and said: "At Seaton we pride ourselves on a whole team approach.

"High standards of cleanliness and patient satisfaction regarding environment and food are very important to us.

"To achieve such a high standard demonstrates the commitment of all staff to the care of our patients. The catering team, led by Sara Broom and Gemma Parker, has maintained its exceptionally high standards and is regularly praised by patients."

Kate Lyons, director of operations for Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust, said: "We are pleased that the majority of our hospitals in East Devon have been rated as excellent all round."

COLYFORD

Hall's final phase

THE final stages of a £120,000 refurbishment project at Colyford Memorial Hall are now underway.

The final major phase of the renovations project is the re-roofing of the hall, which started last week and is expected to continue over the next three or four weeks.

It was agreed about six years ago that the 1950s roof, which had no insulation, would need replacing. The hall's trustees have raised £50,000 for this phase which will cover a new insulated roof, photo voltaic solar panels, a suspended ceiling and all necessary electrical works.

On completion, which is expected at the end of August or beginning of September, the Memorial Hall will reopen and fundraising events will continue to pay off the loan from the Feoffees and work towards financing further improvements,

£1K raised at duck race

■ PROUD AS PUNCH: Daniel Lavery was happy to show off the new bike

A DUCK race organised by Honiton and District Lions Club raised £1,000 for Devon Freewheelers, a Honiton-based voluntary emergency service transporting blood and other medical supplies for the NHS

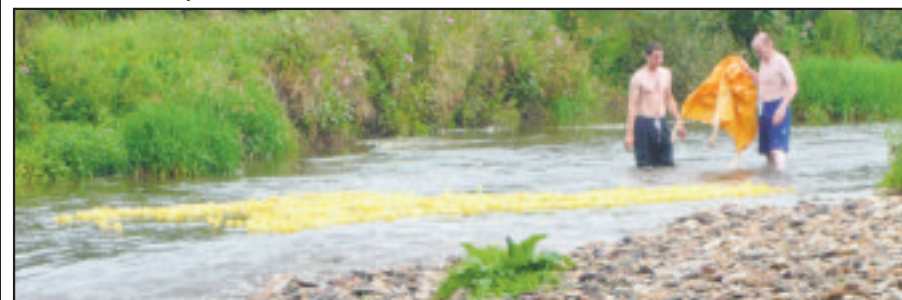

Bad weather forced the organisers to cancel associated events and stands, but the annual race was held as planned near Otter Inn, Weston on Sunday, August 5th.

Bob Francis of Honiton and District Lions said: "Given the weather, there was still an excellent turnout with ticket sales being brisk, adding to the numbers already sold in advance.

"Once the tickets were sold, two Lions took to the water carrying the ducks 100 meter upstream, releasing them into the River Otter for their dash to the winning post.

"Daniel Lavery, who set up Devon Freewheelers, was there to unveil the new BMW response bike. With blue lights flashing it was a big attraction for children and adults.

"At the end of the day we were very pleased to announce that the target of £1,000 had been reached. Daniel took to the microphone thanking everyone for supporting the Honiton Lions and Devon Freewheelers."

Poet to perform at Beehive bash

THE acclaimed Devon stand-up poet Jackie Juno is coming to perform this Saturday, August 11th at the Beehive Benefit Bash event to raise funds to build a community centre in Honiton.

Jackie is part of a great line up including local musicians Sweet Black Angels and Blimey Oh Riley playing at Boston Tea Party from 7.15pm.

Never one to follow convention, Jackie draws upon a lifetime of wayward experiences to bring you a dynamic, hilarious and thought-provoking show, waxing lyrical about everything from tweezers to human rights to paleolithic cave art.

She is Grand Bard of Exeter and lives on the edge of Dartmoor with her guitarist husband and young daughter.

Tickets are £5 in advance (£7 on the door) from Wendy's Cookshop, Honiton Toy Shop, Boston Tea Party and Honiton Tourist Information Centre.

"On the whole our hospitals have performed strongly and, by addressing areas in need of improvement, we are confident of maintaining and building on these high standards in inspection teams were encouraged by all the work and standards being achieved throughout the trust."

Inspection panels include NHS staff such as matrons and facilities and infection control teams, as well as patient representatives and an independent assessor.

■ A TEAM of Axminster builders briefly downed tools to raise an Olympic flag at their Axminster headquarters.

Staff at A J Proctor Builders Ltd raised the Olympic flag in company grounds on Friday July 27th to show their support for Team GB. One of them, Andy Proctor, played a part in Olympic preparations as a volunteer through the London Prepares programme.

The programme allowed organisers to test vital areas of operation ahead of the games. Volunteers played a vital part in test events so organisers could see if anything at the venues - like scoring systems, pitches, walkways, transport facilities and so on - needed fine tuning.

Andy, who is a British Canoe Union Level 3 coach, was involved with canoe sprint preparations at Eton Dorney.

No fund applications

AXMINSTER'S flood relief fund is yet to receive an application, but mayor Andrew Moulding is not worried.

He is expecting applications in the near future when those affected have had time to meet loss adjusters and calculate exactly what financial damage they have suffered.

Following severe flooding in early July, Axminster Town Council and East Devon District Council (EDDC) set up a joint flood relief fund for those who suffered financially.

A similar fund was operated in Ottery a few years ago after flooding there.

Mr Moulding said: "It was a slow start in Ottery as well."

It is not known yet how much money there will be in the fund. The town council will announce its donation when it meets on Monday, August 13th and EDDC has announced that it will match-fund any donations up to a maximum of £10,000.

New car, new opportunity

BRAND new mobility vehicles have given two Honiton men increased opportunities.

Gavin Steer and John Gosling both have severe learning disabilities and are completely dependent on the 24-hour care they receive from the Brandon Trust in Honiton.

Although physically disabled, both really enjoy being able to get out and about in the community, but it has been a huge challenge.

Paula Allen, Senior Support Worker for the Brandon Trust, a charity that supports people with learning disabilities, said the bungalows at Lisbourne where John and Gavin live are at the top of a steep hill.

She explained: "So they have found it extremely difficult to access the local community because they both use wheelchairs and pushing them up and down the hill is an impossible task

"We also have minimal access to a suitable vehicle which can only be hired for a short time, because of the demand for it, therefore the arrival of these mobility vehicles is a real reason to celebrate."

The vehicles were funded through the disability allowance John and Gavin receive.

Gavin, 45, who was born with cerebral palsy, was at home with his parents Ernie and Sylvia Steer, until the age of 30, but has lived at Lisbourne, previously run by the Devon Partnership NHS Trust, ever since.

Mr Steer, 76, from Beer, said: "Gavin can't walk or talk and needs 24-hour care, but he is very happy in his own way.

"He does enjoy being able to go out and about, something that has been quite difficult, so buying a mobility vehicle has made a huge difference to him.

"Knowing that he can now go out when he wants just makes him so happy.

"He has only had the vehicle a couple of weeks, but the difference it has made was noticeable immediately."

John Gosling, 43, who is blind and has autism, has been in care for most of his life.

His brother Paul, who lives in Uplyme, said: "I am really pleased that John is able to go out more, which he really enjoys."

Paula Allen, who has worked for the Brandon Trust since the Devon Partnership NHS Trust's Learning Disability Service was decommissioned in 2011, added: "Before John and Gavin barely had access to the community, but now, with the help of the Brandon Trust, the world is their oyster.

"We are delighted for them."

News briefs

AN NHS trust held a nurse recruitment day at Honiton Hospital, and will repeat the exercise at Honiton Show.

Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust runs a string of community hospitals – including in Axminster, Honiton, Ottery Seaton and Sidmouth.

After a summer recruitment campaign, a total of 27 nurses have been offered posts, with more set to join in the near future.

Candidates from across the UK attended two open days, including one at Honiton Hospital.

Jobs were offered to 11 nurses following the open day in Honiton, which was attended by 22 candidates despite severe flooding in the area that day. Bev Cox, assistant director of nursing for the trust, said: "Both open days were highly successful and the feedback from candidates was very positive.

"The events have really raised the profile of the organisation and put the trust and Devon on the map as a great place to work.

"We saw a number of high-quality candidates over the two days and have received further return to work enquiries that we will be pursuing.

"This is all part of our plan to create a flexible and multi-skilled workforce who will provide the highest quality of care to our patients, both in hospitals and out in the community."

Trust officials are set to attend Honiton Show on Thursday, August 30th to promote the organisation as an employer.

Folk club members take to the streets to dance

HONITON Folk Dance Club embraced the town's Charter Day last week when they took to the streets in song and dance.

Accompanied by local folk band, The Amycrofters, the group performed outside the Honiton Baptist Church in full period costume.

With the gazebo decked out in Union Flags, there was true British spirit, and many passers by took to joining in and crowding round the ensemble.

The Amycrofters, June and Andrew Mycroft, were joined by their two grandchildren and three resident mannequins and got many feet tapping as they played a number of upbeat tunes and well-known folk classics including 'the calling of Rosie Shaw'.

For further details about the Amycrofters Band or Honiton Folk Dance Club phone Andrew or June on 01404 46451 or visit www.amycrofters.co.uk.

Gerry remembers London 1948

WITH the Olympics well underway and the country watching Team GB's every move, 91-year-old Gerry Crocker reflects on his involvement in the games more than 60 years ago.

An Olympic torchbearer in 1948, Axe Valley Heritage Museum volunteer and Sidford man Gerry was one of 27 runners in Devon who ran with a torch. At the time of the 1948 games, Mr Crocker was stationed in the Navy's Devonport Barracks.

A keen long distance runner, Gerry was selected to carry a torch along a 1.8-mile course from Dawlish Fork Road to Alphington in Exeter on behalf of the Plymouth Command Royal Naval and Royal Marines Athletic Club.

As a former Chief Petty Officer and a now a Royal British Legion volunteer, Mr Crocker's family did apply for him to once again carry the torch in the 2012 relay but he was not chosen.

Looking back on his experience he said: "Times have moved on since 1948 and really there is no comparison between now and 64 years ago.

"Back then, it was a true honour to carry the torch, and it still is now, but the difference is the coverage and media attention.

"In 1948, the rest of the country had no idea what was going on and would not have been able to watch

By Laura Goldsbury Noy
laura@pemedial.co.uk

the torch relay on the television, so it is good that more people can be involved in 2012.

"Running with the torch all those years ago was a much more serious affair, running longer stints with dedicated runners and true athletes taking on the role of torch bearers."

Despite the obvious differences between the 1948 games and the current 2012 Olympics, Mr Crocker also referred to a slight sadness, that commercialism and modern times have perhaps taken away from the true nature of the Olympics.

He added: "I think the 1948 games was the last true people's Olympics.

"Traditions have gone and the sporting events and items in the games nowadays are so varied and far more extensive than those true athletic competitions such as simple running and jumping.

"It is a shame that the Olympics has turned into such a terrific expense and a money making scheme, over the true spirit of sport, but regardless I wish Team GB every bit of luck and hope we can still show what true sports people can come from our country."

Mr Crocker now continues to show off his 1948 torch, touring local schools and events and sharing his experience as an athlete and torchbearer.

Eyre Court Hotel hosts cribbage fundraiser

EYRE Court Hotel in Seaton was the scene of the annual Devon Air Ambulance Cribbage Competition on Monday, July 30th.

The competition was contested by 16 players; the preliminary rounds were single games, the semi-finals and final were the best of three games.

There were no shock results in the first round but defending champion Steve Simpson was eliminated in the second round by Bryony Vere, one of the four women in the last eight.

The semi-final fixtures were Paul Vere against Pat Berry and Bryony

Vere against Norman Stone. Both games were close and both ended 2-1, with Paul and Norman contesting the final.

Norman won the first leg but Paul Vere took the next two to win the Langtec Cup and the £20 first prize.

Norman Stone received £10 as runner-up and sponsors Langtec Ltd donated £100 to the Devon Air Ambulance Trust.

One of the competitors, Bob Berry, said: "The whole evening was thoroughly enjoyable in good humour and quite a lot of banter; definitely not like your average crib evening."

Zumbathon raises £115 for pre-school

SUPPORTERS of Rupert's Under Fives Pre-School in Seaton joined forces for some shimmy shaking fun to raise general funds for the playgroup.

Organised by Angie Baldwin, the group raised £115 for the pre-school on Friday evening, when they joined in a special zumbathon led by local Zumba instructor, Johanna Morgan.

Inspired by Johanna's Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning classes at the town hall in Seaton, Angie decided it would be the perfect opportunity to get both the children and parents moving, all for a good cause.

The money raised will be used to purchase a new outside notice board to display the children's work and Rupert's staff would like to thank all those who came along to support them, as well as Angie for organising the event and to Johanna for giving up her time.

Tomatoes galore...

... despite the poor weather!

■ COLYFORD residents Harold Wakefield has beaten the poor growing season with his impressive tomato plant. The former government auditor has surprised himself with his tomato plant, which currently has about 40 fruit already set and a further 150 buds. He said he'd never seen one with so many buds but wasn't sure if they would all produce fruit. If they did he would offer them free outside his house. Mr Wakefield, who still keeps up with his gardening despite his age of 96, grows tomatoes each year and has protected his impressive plants from this season's poor weather in his greenhouse, where he is also growing a grapevine.

Grammar school's tennis girls placed sixth nationally

■ NATIONAL SUCCESS: Colyton Grammar School's girls' tennis team with PE teacher Nicci Humphries

FOLLOWING their success at the recent Aegon schools' tennis finals in Sheffield last week, Colyton Grammar School's girls' tennis team has been placed sixth nationally.

The team had a tough week playing teams from all over the country, including Queenswood School from Hertfordshire, who went on to win the tournament for the second year running.

Despite not having their captain Liberty Brown, the girls played excellent tennis, recording wins against Sevenoaks School, Ellesmere College and narrowly losing in a tough shoot-out to Repton College.

It was a tremendous achievement from the team, which included: Natasha Mejzner, 18, from Budleigh Salterton; Lara Graney, 17, from Exeter; Emma Hurst, 16, from Whitford; and Isabella Brown, 15, from Budleigh Salterton.

The annual Three Circle skittles match recently took place at The George Inn, Chardstock.

The event was hosted by Axminster Circle, the holders of the Barry McQuade Trophy. The annual match is between Axminster, Exeter and Somerset West Circles.

The trophy, made out of a single piece of coal fashioned into a magnificent steam train, was donated by the late Barry McQuade of Exeter Circle, to be presented to the winning circle and held for one year.

It was a very successful evening attended by 41 members, wives and widows. The winning Circle was Exeter and the trophy was presented by Barry's widow, Glenys McQuade, to the winning president, Michael Osbaldston. After which all retired to the bar for an excellent buffet supper!

Solicitors to host tea, talk and tour at garden centre

GILBERT Stephens Solicitors will be hosting a free event for local gardening enthusiasts at Otter Nurseries next month.

The two-hour programme will include a tour and talk with the gardening centre's in-house expert and owner, Marilyn White (pictured below).

During the event, which takes place on September 18th, guests will learn more about the centre's impressive history as Marilyn tells the story of how Otter Nurseries has become one of the leading names in horticulture in the South West.

Guests will also be shown around the premises, looking at where the plants are grown – almost 80 per cent of plants sold at the leading garden centre are grown in-house.

After the 45 minute tour, attendees will be treated to an afternoon cream tea in Otter Nurseries cafe where Marilyn will answer any gardening questions or queries.

There will also be a short presentation about some of the services offered by Gilbert Stephens.

Philip Luckham, CEO

"They are a great regional brand and I hope to pick up a few gardening tips to take into autumn!"

A little help is at hand

ALTHOUGH we all hope that the summer deluge is over, Axminster and District Lions Club is aware that further heavy rainfall will no doubt cause real problems for some householders.

The Lions would like residents of the area to know that the club has four dehumidifiers available for loan, which may be of help in any drying out process.

Anyone wishing to borrow one – free of charge – should contact the president of Axminster and District Lions Club, Peter Wells, on 01404 822089.

The next U3A general meeting is planned for Wednesday, September 19th at the Turks Head Lodge, Honiton starting at 2:15pm. The speaker will be Stuart Jones on 'A World Tour of the Honiton War Memorial'. Visitors are always welcome.

Welcome to Beer Regatta

WOW its June already and once again it's all go as we build up to another fun filled Regatta! Once again I'm pleased to report that last year's Regatta was another success with much appreciated feedback – thank you. I just can't believe a year has passed so quickly!

The support of the local community and visitors is amazing and without the help of all those who give up their time to help or organise events we just wouldn't be able to put so much on. All your help is truly appreciated and I thank you all very much.

Thank you also to everyone who came along to our Barn Dance in May; organised as a fundraiser for Regatta 2012 and our spectacular firework display. If you didn't make it you really missed out, it was a brilliantly fun night and I send special thanks to the organisers and helpers who made such a great effort to put on a fantastic evening which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Well Beer Regatta 2012 is set to be as big and fun as usual with something for all ages, over 20 events and counting!! So I hope you are looking forward to it as much as I am.

As we all know Beer Regatta has proudly been firmly established for many years, in fact for so many that next year we will be celebrating our centenary – yes next year Beer Regatta will be 100 years old!!

Now that's defiantly worth a celebration – something we know we do well in this wonderful village; unfortunately I can't grant an official bank holiday but I can tell you that the Regatta Committee is already working hard on making 2013 extra special! Ring in the Olympics

■ AN HOUR-long bell ringing session was held in Chardstock to celebrate the start of London 2012. The session in St Andrew's Church started at 7:30pm on Friday, July 27th after which bell ringers Michael Hunt, Kevin Newbery, Derek Goff, Sue Bray, Richard Scott and Angela Drake continued the festivities in the local inn.

Another great year for Axmouth Show

THE results are in for Axmouth Village Show and once again it has been a bumper year all round.

With more than 500 entries and 60 entrants, the flower show attracted a wide variety of exhibits, despite the poor weather and bad growing season.

Well known exhibitor Rob Sweetland once again stole the show with his vegetables, despite growing conditions being tough this year.

Long serving Axmouth Show supporter Vince Trevett also came out on top scooping not one but five awards for his impressive vegetables and flowers, coming first overall.

Alison Hill also took the show by storm with her spread of food, jams, fruit, and home craft getting most points in the show overall and scooping the coveted Clement Cup.

Young Sarah and Helen Underwood also did well in the children's sections, winning the fancy dress competition and turning out a range of crafts and food entries.

It was show secretary Penny Sweetland's last year in charge; Judith Simpson will take over the position next year.

Organisers of the show would like to thank Penny for her ongoing support and hard work, managing the flower show over the years.

The committee would also like to thank everyone who once again came along to the show and continue to support them.

Torch relay runner Chloe tells her story in Farway

■ LONDON 2012 Torch Relay runner Chloe Lock, from Honiton, told her Olympic story to staff and children at Farway Under Fives' Pre-School and Farway Primary School.

Pre-school chairman Jenny Lidster said: "The children were captivated with her story, how she felt and the photographs she showed them. The pre-school children had made their own torches and were keen to show her what they had made and introduce her to Mandeville, the pre-school's Olympic mascot. The most excitement came when each child held the torch with Chloe."

Chloe's torch relay nomination said: "She encourages people who are less able and have no-self confidence. She is team player and an amazing athlete and a wonderful instructor."

Sergeant will leave post for six months

AXMINSTER and Seaton police sergeant Peter Trudgeon will leave his post for six months to work on a special project at force headquarters in Exeter.

But any fears that the two towns would be left without a sergeant for the duration have been quashed.

Sergeant Peter Trudgeon, who is qualified at inspector level, has confirmed that he is leaving this week.

He has also confirmed that his replacement has already been appointed and will start on Monday, August 13th.

The new man is Stephen Paynter, whose official title will be acting sergeant.

He comes with a good knowledge of the beat as he used to patrol Axminster earlier in his career when he was a PC.

Primary pupils' peace posters

PUPILS from four primary schools in and around Axminster have taken part in a peace poster competition organised by Axminster and District Lions Club.

The schools involved were Axminster, Shute, Musbury and Mrs. Ethelston's primaries.

A club spokesperson said: "This is part of the Lions International Annual Peace Poster Competition under the local guidance of Lion Marcia Cook.

"The posters were judged for their artistic merit and for their expression of the theme (Imagine Peace) and the decisions were incredibly difficult.

"This year all pupils who took part received a certificate of achievement.

"The winners from each school will face strong competition through the district, national and international rounds.

"We wish them all the best of luck in the next round. Posters are displayed in Axminster Library."

The top pupils at the respective schools were: Axminster Primary School: 1 Amy Rosling, 2 Hannah Wooldridge, 3 Katie Richards, 4 (joint) Samuel Arnold and Aiden Herbert.

Musbury primary School: 1 Petra Garner, 2 Chloe Hewitt, Hannah Wright, Shute Primary School: 1 Annabelle Stidwell, 2 Hannah Lidiard Doores, 3 Caleb Sinclair.

Mrs Ethelston's Primary School: 1 Issy Cullimore, 2 Ben Prosser, 3 Magenta Williams, highly commended Fleur Gardner-Wray.

The crime reference is KA/12/386.

A pair of men's golf shoes were stolen from a car parked in the Trinity Hill Road area, Axminster.

The size 10 shoes were taken at some point between 1.30pm and 4pm on Sunday August 5th.

The crime reference is KA/12/395. Anyone with information that could help police is asked to call the force switchboard on 101.

Ed completes his 'great adventure' and raises £350 on two-week walk

A YOUNG Axminster man went on a two-week walk from Chepstow to Prestatyn in aid of charity.

The formal name of the route is Offa's Dyke, which includes a 177-mile long British National Trails footpath.

Ed Thomas camped in a tent overnight and reached the end of the path on Friday, July 13th.

The 20-year-old is on his summer break from history and politics studies at Cardiff University.

Some of his friends at university set up a charitable trust called Action for Developing Communities (ADC), and Ed decided to assist by organising his one-man walk and fundraiser.

ADC works to "reduce the level of absolute poverty in developing communities through improving educational access, infrastructure and existing facilities".

When speaking to Pulman's View, Ed had already raised about £350.

About his walk, he said: "It was a really great adventure.

"I met lots of friendly and generous people along the way who sponsored me, wished me good luck – and one person even provided a free meal."

Anyone wishing to sponsor Ed can contact him on 07772 790054 or by emailing thomase28@cardiff.ac.uk.

■ MISSION ACCOMPLISHED: Ed has just crossed the finishing line in Prestatyn

Axminster news briefs

CONSTABULARY bosses have confirmed that Axminster will get a new, shared police station.

Officers will move from their current headquarters to share a building with the town's firefighters.

The move was confirmed by Devon and Cornwall Police after the fire and rescue service's planning application for permission to modernise and extend the fire station was approved.

In a brief statement a Devon and Cornwall Police spokesperson said: "A decision has been made and we will be re-locating with the fire service."

A moving date has not been announced but, in a previous statement, Axminster police sergeant Peter Trudgeon said: "It probably won't happen until next year as they have to build the extension first."

At the time, he also said: "The Police Authority has approved a rationalisation programme for the police-owned estate as part of non-staff savings."

PRODUCTION workers at Axminster Carpets have returned to full working hours.

Reduced working hours were introduced earlier this year and it is understood that shift workers lost about nine hours for every two-week period.

In a statement issued to Pulman's View, Axminster Carpets director of customer services and human resources Samantha Mickleburgh confirmed that full working hours have been reinstated.

She said: "I am pleased to confirm that with effect from Sunday July 15th the Axminster production team has returned to full working hours. This is due to an increase in production requirements coupled with holiday cover.

"We will continue to review this on a monthly basis, but at this time we expect to maintain this situation for the remainder of the year."

FRESH FISH

The great part of cooking fish on the BBQ is you can prepare all the fish and seafood in advance: marinades, basting sauces and dips will all keep perfectly well in a fridge; leaving you free to chat and enjoy the company of family and friends.

You will be able to cook some fish and seafood direct on the BBQ, others will need protecting in aluminium foil. Sardines, salmon, sea bass, king prawns etc, need no more than seasoning and basting with your choice of marinade or sauce. Others such as cod fillet and softer fish need protection. Marinade your fish and seafood before cooking: olive oil, sea salt, honey, soy sauce and herbs and spices are all prime candidates for inclusion in a marinade. Fresh herbs such as rosemary and bay leaves make ideal flavouring.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

CHURCHES in East Devon were quick to mark the start of the Olympic events as bells were rung at 8.12am on the opening morning to aid competitors and spectators on their way.

St Michael's Church in Colyford included a special Olympic hymn in their Sunday evening service when the theme was the spirit of service and unity. St Michael's Church in Musbury followed a similar theme in their family service on the Sunday just past.

Less pleasant news has reached parishes in Devon from the Bishop of Exeter regarding financial resources necessary to maintain the existing number of clergy and lay staff in the Diocese. The current need each year is £13 million of which clergy stipends amount to about £9 million, which is sought from parish contributions.

For several years now there has been a shortfall in such payments, which cannot continue. The Bishop has therefore set up a group of his Council to examine the needs and resources, and consider action.

Details will be explained at open meetings shortly. These meetings are especially for licensed ministers and lay church officers but all are welcome. The nearest meeting is on September 6th at Exeter Cathedral from 7-9pm. Conclusions go to Diocesan Synod members on Saturday, October 13th. There is also an afternoon meeting in Paignton on September 7th. Call 01297 552665 for details.

Meanwhile the life of our churches goes on and August offers a varied menu. Today (Tuesday, August 7th) sees a concert at St Paul's Church in Honiton at 12:30pm for church funds. Southleigh Fayre takes place on August 8th at 2:30pm with proceeds to the church and hall - both needing repair.

There's lunchtime music at Axminster church on Thursday, and Colyton Methodist Prayer Fellowship takes place in the hall at 10am on Friday, including refreshments.

Saturday sees the Axminster United Reformed Church summer fair, from 9:30am in the Church Hall, Chard Street. Colyton's Church Fete is also on Saturday at 2:30pm.

Branscombe are singing Songs of Praise with the Honiton Town Band this Sunday, on the beach at 6pm.

Honiton Churches Team meet together for a fun afternoon on August 19th from 2:30pm at Manor House School; bring picnics, details from the church wardens.

LUKE Hunt is the genial host at the family run Beer restaurant-pub, formerly the Barrel o' Beer, recently re-named The Seafood Platter. The former manor house in Beer's main street was converted into a pub in 1982 and has been a favourite with locals and holidaymakers for many years.

Geoff and Roberta Hunt bought the pub in 1990 when it was a busy drinking pub with only a small snack menu. Since then many changes have been made to keep the pub moving with the times, acknowledging the trend towards better quality food in pubs and its latest transition to The Seafood Platter

Luke, having trained as a chef at Exeter College and gaining experience in Michelin star restaurants, returned to the family business in 1998 when fresh local fish was introduced to the menu.

Luke runs front of house at the popular hostelry and is one of Beer's most colourful characters.

● BEER is an archetypal fishing village and one of East Devon's most popular tourist venues. If you could bring about one major change to make it even more popular, what would it be?

INTRODUCTION of cheaper parking or a park and ride scheme to attract more people into the village as the car parks in the village centre get very full and are expensive.

● BEER is about to stage its big week of the year with the annual Beer Regatta? How does this current season compare with recent summers?

WEATHER does play an important factor in the tourism trade, particularly in seaside resorts, and this year has been noticeably wet. However people are willing to travel to us for the quality food and service we provide.

● THE Barrel o' Beer has been one of East Devon's most popular pubs for more than 20 years. Why did you change the name to The Seafood Platter?

BECAUSE the days of drinking pubs are gone. We have been doing good fresh local food for many years, but people still saw us as just a drinking pub that did food. Now we are one of the top seafood pub/restaurants in Devon and want people to see us for what we are, having achieved recognition through awards.

● DESCRIBE the popularity of The Seafood Platter in three words.
Taste, Quality and Service.

● YOUR family has owned the pub since 1990. How has the pub business changed in that time?

When the family bought the pub it was a good, fun, very busy drinking pub. My parents put in a top CD juke box, fruit machines, provided meat draws and fun charity days. We would get people from all over the region coming as my father is one of the best and most loved publicans you will meet. Then with the booze cruises and supermarkets selling cheap alcohol the drinking trade has declined. So when I came back it was ready for a change in direction, focusing on food. Initially with some fresh local fish then re-inventing the menu.

● Choose your favourite three dishes from you own current menu.

WEST Country Moules Frites - Mussels in white wine, garlic, cream and parsley served with chips; Spaghetti with crab, chili, ginger, lime and coriander; Fillet of Hake with fennel, beetroot, orange & coriander salad.

● Away from your busy life front of house at The Seafood Platter, how do you like to relax?

GARDENING, looking after my lovely little daughter Carlota, reading and photography.

● WHO is your favourite celebrity chef and why?

Readers confirm glowworm sightings

READERS' emails have been pouring in! Following my reference to glowworms, Lucy Rutherford, who lives near Aylesbeare, tells me that she counted no fewer than nine glowworms in the long grass on the bank surrounding her home.

Diana Dark, near Broadhayes, has enjoyed six sightings during June and July; so it seems that this year the wingless female beetles have been glowing in grand style. Let's hope that they attracted the required male attention and that even more will be spotted next year.

Caroline Brereton tells me that she wholeheartedly supports my comments on the "tidy-minded jobsworths" who can't wait to strim the wild flowers bordering hedgerows.

She writes: "Less strimming (and it isn't just councils who are to blame) would also mean less money spent on petrol and less pollution. Congratulations to Weymouth for their enlightened approach regarding the Relief Road's embankments. Let's hope they don't become infected with 'tidy-mindedness' when the 'weeds' take hold."

Now wild boar and big cats are back on the agenda! Angela Boyd tells me that when walking in Buckland Wood, near Lowton in the Blackdown Hills, a large wild boar, which she describes as being salt-and-pepper coloured, galloped up a hill, very close to her, then leapt a boundary bank and stock fencing into a grassy enclosure where four Shetland ponies were grazing and vanished. Was this, I wonder, one of the wild boar from the Exmoor area where they are established?

A month previously in the same area of woodland two black panthers ran towards Angela, then veered away, leaping through some birch scrub. She also, she tells me, has a black panther living in rough fields near her house. She has seen it twice, as too have other people in the area.

She has also recently found a young badger and a fox cub, both with their throats ripped out, and wonders whether this is the work of a lurcher or a big cat.

Furthermore, a neighbour's rabbit hutch has been smashed and the unfortunate occupant abstracted. By what, one wonders?

There is not the slightest doubt, in my opinion, that a population of a type of black leopard or panther is living and breeding in our countryside.

Angela Boyd suggested I look up online the Malaysian leopard, a black animal which exactly fits the description of the many sightings now recorded in this country.

Angela Boyd might care to get in touch with Rick Minter from Gloucestershire, whose fascinating book Big Cats: Facing Britain's Wild Predators was published in December this year (Whitliffe Publishing, 01593 731333).

In it, Rick factually examines the overwhelming evidence which now exists for the presence of a viable population of big cats in our countryside and also includes several photographs which cannot be disputed. However, the final piece of the jigsaw - in the form of a really clear film or a trapped or dead big cat - has yet to be produced.

On a lighter note, it's encouraging to see that Upton Heath, some of the rarest wildlife habitat in Britain and which suffered from an appalling fire, is recovering and traditional heathland grazing is now being introduced.

A third of the 500 acre site near Poole was destroyed but regeneration is now taking place and three Exmoor ponies will be joined by an equal number of rare breed Shetland cattle and, in the winter, by five equally rare British white cattle.

All will have a significant role to play in helping to keep vegetation in check and so encouraging the return of heathland plants and, with them, reptiles, birds and insects. Visitors to the heath reserve are asked not to feed these animals as they have ample grazing and are checked regularly.

Colyton Business Park

Providers of workspace for business

‘Home to eight thriving local business’

DEVELOPED in 2009 by local builder Eddie Dayment, Colyton Business Park is now home to eight thriving local business. The park comprises of 9 units and each unit has work space over two floors allowing for an ideal layout of storage or working space on the ground floor, with office space above. Set amidst beautiful countryside with far reaching views and very near the market town of Colyton, the park offers affordable workspace, easily accessible from the A35 and the A3052, Colyton Business park is an ideal location base for business.

Built during the recession the worry was that the units may not have been rented immediately, however things were very different, as each unit was completed local businesses were ready to move in and on a couple of occasions the paint was still wet as the keys were handed over. Our main aim was to try and rent each unit to local people, so that businesses could remain in the area and of course employment would too and I think Joanne and I have achieved this. Whilst interest still remains nationwide with businesses wanting to relocate to Devon it's not hard to know why many people want to come to live and work in the Westcountry.

If you are interested in renting workspace please call either Eddie Dayment or Joanne Werb on 01297 553094.

Tomato Catshop

TOMATO Catshop is a new small business based in the heart of the East Devon countryside. I design and hand-make a range of products which are both functional and decorative featuring hand-pulled screen prints; our ceramics and some of our fabrics are produced exclusively for us by British manufacturers. We use only quality cottons and fine bone china to bring a little touch of luxury into your home. You will find cushions, aprons, tea towels and mugs as well as cards and prints and we are forever creating new ideas to add to the range.

The idea for Tomato Catshop came from a lovely lady cat called Coco who ran my life for 17 years; the red cat design was inspired by an English Norcroft china figurine which sits on my desk in my workshop. Our designs also include a cheeky greyhound - my ex-racer Skozi (who hasn't quite worked out that he's retired) and a donkey which lives very happily a few miles up the road at the donkey sanctuary.

Our new website will be launched in the next couple of weeks and as sales pick up from that we hope to ask local ladies (and men!) to do some sewing at home for us. We will also be looking for local stockists so if you are interested please contact us!

Further complaint over developer's 'white' noise

■ FURTHER to your editorial regarding the open space, we too have a complaint for Wainhomes.

Why do we have to be subjected to the constant noise pollution caused by the reverse warning device on their machinery?

We understand from the EDDC that an agreement was made that this machinery could emit 'white' noise which is audible only in the immediate vicinity and not by the whole estate and beyond.

As a disabled person I have to endure this constant disturbance day in day out and perhaps some publicity will persuade Wainhomes to reflect on the disturbance and noise pollution they have caused over the past few years, since residents in the area are completely fed up with their activities.

Dog walker tells of rubbish littering scenic areas of Seaton and Beer

■ AS a responsible dog walker I get to see a lot of the Beer and Seaton area.

Today I started my walk from the lay-by and picnic area at the top of Seaton Downhill.

I was amazed at the amount of litter to be seen lying about the car parking area.

In fact I filled a bag with eight plastic bottles and five cans, took them home and put them in my recycling box – and it is often us dog walkers who get a bad press.

Perhaps it would be a sensible place for the council to provide a litter bin?

Spare a thought for the Cliffside cafe

■ I APPRECIATE the reasons behind the reduction of access on Old Beer Road but my heart goes out to the proprietors of the Cliffside Cafe at Seaton Hole.

Not only have they had the bad weather to contend with but now they have to deal with a customer access problem.

On top of that the cafe has had its parking spaces curtailed by the council, not because they are also deemed dangerous but so the local residents won't be affected by people turning around in what is now effectively a cul-de-sac.

Come on, the council and the public ought to try and support these small businesses instead of making it even harder for them!

CARNIVAL BUSKERS TO FILL SEATON STREETS WITH MUSIC

SEATON Carnival Committee plan to fill Seaton streets with music by launching a Bank Holiday busking competition with cash prizes and a chance to perform at the carnival variety night at Seaton Town Hall.

The competition, which is open to acoustic musicians of all ages, will be held on August 27th as part of the annual Carnival Week celebrations in the town. Organisers are offering prizes in a range of categories, including best band, best individual, and best junior, plus a 'Spirit of Carnival' prize for the musician who collects the most money for charity and puts most effort into their performance by way of fancy dress.

Competition organiser and professional street musician, Jon Croose, said: "The Carnival committee is always on the lookout for new ideas to make Carnival Week a fun-packed celebration for Seaton, and what better way to brighten up the town than by digging out the best local singers and musicians and getting them out on the streets for a morning."

The overall winner will open the popular variety night with a 15-minute slot on stage at the Town Hall on August 31st and all money donated to participating buskers will go to local good causes.

He added: "The Judges will be looking for musical ability, passion, entertainment value and audience interaction. This is a real chance for local musicians to show off their skill, personality and performance ability. Who needs the X-Factor when you have got Seaton Carnival Busking Competition?"

Anyone who wants to enter the busking competition should contact Jon for an entry form by e-mail at jfc208@exeter.ac.uk or by text on 07931 552 778. Junior Entrants must be aged under 16 and have their parents' consent. All performers must register in advance and pay a registration fee of £5. The competition is open to non-amplified acoustic singers and musicians only and each performer will be asked to play for 15 minutes, during which time they will be judged. Deadline for entries is Monday, August 20th.

The Good Dancers, Lucy 9mm, The Dinner Ladies and State Of Undress come together for Bridport's Festival of Culture

FOR the opening night of Bridport's Festival of Culture (Saturday, August 11th), the Arts Centre will play host to some of the cream of the area's performers for an evening of sparkling live music.

The Best of the West is an eclectic evening of music. First off, DJ Crumpet will be getting everyone in the party mood; then the live music will start with The Good Dancers – a catchy 3-piece of English guitar-based pop (The Good Dancers will also be launching two brand new EPs); followed by singer/songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Lucy 9mm with her blues-influenced songs; then popular 4-piece The Dinner Ladies will play a set of wide ranging songs from Fairport Convention to the Beatles before the rocky rootsy fiddlesome five-piece, State of Undress, take to the stage for an hour of their infectious, fiddle-powered feisty and fun original music to bring the evening to a foot-stomping finale. State of Undress will be playing at Bridport fresh from their performance at Sidmouth Folk-Week and just days before they head off for a mini-tour of Yorkshire.

Roy Gregory of Vinyl Saturday and one of the organisers of the Festival of Culture and the Best of the West event said: 'We are really delighted that these artists are playing and supporting the Festival of Culture. Best of the West is a great showcase of some of the diverse musical talent that exists in this area and it's a brilliant opportunity to catch them all in one venue.'

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Sally Legg Reiki & Thai Therapy

When the stresses of the world leave you feeling drained and tired, let Sally Legg Reiki & Thai Therapy make you feel totally refreshed and replenished. Sally Legg is a fully certified Thai therapy practitioner, who gained her qualifications in April 2006 after studying for two years at the British School of Traditional Thai Body Work. Sally also spent time in Thailand, where she attended the International Thai Massage Institute in Chiang Mai, where she studied under the tutelage of Chongkoi Sethakorn.

During her time in Thailand, Sally also absorbed the beauty and presence of the people, which left a lasting impression on her. Sally always tries to channel this peaceful energy through all her treatments and therapies that will leave you feeling calm and recitalised. The treatments received from Reiki and Thai Bodywork are unique and individually tailor made for each client, depending on their specific needs abilities and requirements.

Thai massage forms the base of treatment for those looking for a good stretch of the body, Reiki on the other hand is used for those who wish for a more gentle softer treatment. For those experiencing pain a combination of the gentle Thai and Reiki can work extremely well. In this busy world an hour just for you is priceless. The treatment that is offered by Sally can help with back, neck, shoulder and joint pain along with muscle tensions, circulation, digestion and stress. If you are interested in a relaxing therapy that can help you with muscle tension, neck pain, and shoulder movement issues or maybe you are just after a pampering experience, then Sally Reiki & Thai Therapy can help you. Why choose Sally Legg Reiki & Thai Therapy treatments?

- Reiki master
- Practitioner of Tibetan Usui energies.
- Tailor-made treatments.
- People of all ages welcome.

Highway Code 149 – 151

I wonder how many motorists have read the latest Highway code?

I'm sure most drivers have. If so, how many have studied the rules 149, which states you must exercise proper control of your vehicle at all times. But if that's the case, why is it that we see so many drivers insisting on speaking on their mobile phones, playing with their Sat-Nav, texting and sending e-mails while apparently being in 'PROPER CONTROL' of their vehicle and thinking nothing of it? We appear to be living in a society that just seems to accept this type of irresponsible reckless behaviour, and it's not only the younger new drivers, it's become all age groups in all types of vehicles. The use of a mobile phone while in charge of a motor vehicle is quite concerning for law abiding motorists because it's usually the innocent that suffer!

Let me know your views, email:

■ TWO HANDS ON THE WHEEL: This driver is probably going to die...

...and who will they take with them?

Fiat 500 among top 10 depreciation proof cars

THE award-winning Fiat 500 city car has received further confirmation of its popularity and value for money after being named among the Top 10 most depreciation resistant cars in the UK.

The findings, from value experts Glass's Guide and reported by industry magazine Auto Trader, show the 100,000-plus UK selling supermini is seventh best among cars that lose their value the least.

The Fiat 500 1.2 Sport is picked out for particular praise by the experts, thanks to "a fun character and good fuel economy, without having to resort to a distinctly un-chic diesel engine".

"I am delighted that the Fiat 500 has again received the praise it deserves," says Elena Bernardelli, marketing director, Fiat Group Automobiles UK Ltd. "It's clear that our customers are benefitting from its remarkable depreciation record, and I'm pleased that industry experts appreciate it too."

The Fiat 500 range starts at £9960 (OTR) for the 1.2 Pop, rising to £19,060 (OTR) for the 500CbyGucci TwinAir, representing outstanding value for money.

Great products, great service: VOLKSWAGEN is commended by Motability

MOTABILITY customers have two good reasons to take a closer look at Volkswagen's range of vehicles, thanks to the manufacturer achieving a commended award for its work with Motability Operations (the company that manages the Motability Car Scheme and the Motability Powered Wheelchair and Scooter Scheme) as well as low Advance Payment terms on a number of popular models including the Golf.

The commended accolade is part of the annual Motability Supplier Awards, now in their seventh year, and recognises Volkswagen's excellence, efficiency, innovation and exceptional customer service. Commenting on the commendation, Mike Betts, chief executive, Motability Operations, said: 'Offering stable pricing for customers, and popular models at very affordable rates, Volkswagen is highly committed to the Motability Scheme. The commended accolade at the Motability Supplier Awards acknowledges the efforts that have gone into increased environmentally friendly options, better value and an engaged dealer network. Well done to all at Volkswagen.'

A wide range of Volkswagen models is available through the Motability scheme from the new up! city car, through the Polo, Golf – including the Golf Plus, Golf Estate and Cabriolet – Jetta, Passat, Scirocco and Tiguan to the Touran and Sharan people carriers. Many are available with low Advance Payment offers, for example, £99 for the Golf S, and zero Advance Payment on the Polo S and Match models.

Commenting on the commendation, head of Volkswagen Fleet Services, Vince Kinner, said: 'We're delighted to receive this award and proud that we have been recognised as people who are committed to Motability, both through the products we are able to offer and the service and back-up we provide both internally and through our Retailer network.'

Motability Operations manages the worry-free Motability Scheme for over 600,000 disabled people and their families. Anyone who receives the Higher Rate Mobility Component of the Disability Living Allowance or the War Pensioners' Mobility Supplement can exchange this monthly payment to lease a brand new car, scooter or powered wheelchair through the Motability Scheme. For more information on Motability call 0800 093 1000 or visit www.motability.co.uk.

You liked it, we've made it! Citroën's Facebook crowd sourced C1 Connexion Special Edition now on sale

■ Citroën C1 Connexion special edition, crowd-sourced on Facebook®, on sale now, priced from £9,495

■ Based on the VTR trim level with added equipment & features – including alloy wheels & metallic paint

■ First production car on UK roads resulting from an app created in collaboration with Facebook

■ Chosen from the most popular of more than 24,000 configurations

CITROËN has revealed prices for its new C1 Connexion – the first production car in the UK created from an app which was created in collaboration with Facebook. The C1 Connexion is on sale now with 3 or 5 doors, priced at £9,495 and £9,845 respectively.

More than 24,000 configurations were submitted through Citroën's Facebook Page to create the special edition. Members of the public were invited to visit a virtual 'factory floor' to choose what the model should look like and what features it should have. The final design of C1 Connexion was created from the most popular configuration.

The name badge that features on the car was also designed by a Citroën Facebook fan.

Based on the well-specified C1.0i 68 manual in VTR trim, the C1 Connexion will also feature 14" alloy wheels, dark tinted rear windows, Caldera Black metallic paint and Scarlet Red exterior and interior detailing.

The generous standard specification on C1 VTR models currently includes:

- ABS & EBD
- Variable power assisted steering

- Driver's, front passenger's & front lateral airbags
- Daytime-running LEDs
- Air conditioning
- Front electric windows

Additional features on the C1 Connexion:

- 14" 'Rift' alloy wheels (set of four)
- Caldera Black metallic

paint

- Dark tinted rear windows
- Connexion Exterior Look Pack (Scarlet Red door mirrors, door handles & rear number plate surround)

Connexion Interior Look Pack (Scarlet Red rev counter, speedometer, air vent, gear lever, centre console, interior door & electric window button surrounds, sill protectors & carpet mats)

The C1 Connexion is priced at just £500 more than the VTR version on which it is based, but is specified with well over £925 of additional equipment.

Fuel and CO2 efficient, the C1 Connexion's 1.0i 68 petrol engine delivers combined cycle fuel economy of 65.7mpg with CO2 emissions of just 99g/km – making the model VED free and exempt from the London Congestion Charge.

Marc Raven, Citroën's Communications Director, said: "Citroën UK has a great relationship with its Facebook community – now almost 100,000 strong – and we're always looking to give something back with exclusive news or competitions. Now Citroën fans can look forward to seeing this special edition C1, which they helped produce, on sale across the UK. I think that's something they can be very proud of."

Customers in the UK and USA place Porsche in pole position

- Latest ownership survey by Which? magazine votes Cayman 'Best Buy'
- Report also judged the new car purchase experience most satisfying at Porsche Centres
- Porsche rated as the best car brand overall with 94% ownership satisfaction score
- Respected J.D Power and Associates 'APEAL' survey in the United States judges Porsche to be most popular make of car

THE 2012 Which? magazine car survey has placed the Porsche Cayman top in the Sportscar segment of its influential annual review. Customers also rated the Porsche brand and its retail network as the best in the business in the UK.

The magazine reported that the mid-engined Cayman coupe is "sensational to drive, with scintillating performance and ultra-crisp handling."

Based on comments from over 39,000 readers, the magazine survey went on to rate Porsche as the number one best car brand with peerless customer satisfaction. The survey's conclusion was that drivers looking to buy a sports car should "choose one with good reliability and an outstanding 94% customer score. Porsches are brilliant to drive, build quality is bank-vault solid, and its dealers finished top for sales satisfaction."

The Boxster (2007-2012) was also praised as a 'Best Used Buy', the mid-engined roadster judged to be "sublime to drive." This fact was reflected in the Boxster topping the table for driving enjoyment, with an impressive owners' satisfaction rating of 99.6%.

With a customer score of 85.5%, the performance of the 34 Porsche Centres in Great Britain and Ireland further consolidated the marque's success in the Which? survey.

Underlining the quality of the Porsche driving experience and vehicle design and durability, the respected customer opinion research centre, J. D. Power and Associates, has placed the Stuttgart sports car company in first place for brand appeal in the United States, following the latest 'Automotive, Performance, Execution and Layout Study (APEAL)' survey.

Alongside the Porsche brand, customers also voted for the Porsche 911 as best vehicle in the Premium Sporty sector. The Cayenne was successful in its category to also win a J.D. Power Award. Grades from ten different categories are integrated into the overall score including design, comfort, dynamic performance and suitability for everyday driving.

cricket extra

A TWELVE-a-side cricket knock-out tournament will be staged at Kilminster Cricket Club to raise money for the Axminster Hospital Cup.

Four teams will be competing for a new trophy provided by the Hospital Cup organising committee on Sunday, August 12th. There will also be a trophy for the player-of-the-tournament to be chosen by the umpires.

The 20-over tournament will start at 10.30 am with the final expected to start at around 6 pm.

Kilminster Cricket Club will be entering a side with other teams being captained by Pete Garner, Andrew Guppy and Brett Garner.

The event is expected to raise more than £500 for the Hospital Cup with each player paying £10 to play. There will also be a raffle.

Hospital Cup chairman Pete Garner said: "This is the first time such a tournament has been held and if it is successful we hope to make it an annual event. It will be a great fun day and we hope as many people as possible will come out to Kilminster to give their support."

running round up

Let the Olympics inspire you

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

WITH the Olympics in full flow and Team GB performing superbly, how many just wonder what it must be like to be a 'Wiggo' or Jessica Ennis.

Unfortunately not everyone can become an elite athlete, but there is every opportunity to get fit right here in East Devon.

AVR, Honiton and Sidmouth are three great running clubs with Axe Valley Peddlers for the cyclists. You don't have to be the best to get the most out of these sports.

Beginners to running will get a huge buzz from running their first mile non-stop and losing weight at the same time.

After that it will be managing to beat your club mate for the first time and so it will continue. Running in a group is great fun and AVR have a super mix of ages and abilities for both sexes, including absolute beginner's runs on a Friday.

If you fancy joining in the fun and getting fit see www.axevalleyrunners.org.uk or for beginners ring Jon Day 01297 625 078.

Alex Todd was back on top form with his first win of the year at the Haselbury Trail Race in 40:11. However, not all went smoothly on this two-lap course through scenic fields and woods.

When Alex jumped off a stile into a boggy field his shoe was sucked off in the mud. Mark Wills of Yeovil Town RC, who was winning the race at the time, sportingly offered assistance.

Phil Bayliss won the over 60s prize in 45:57 and Eleanor Wood was pleased to win the third lady trophy taking 49:30. Sue Venn came in with a beaming smile in 1:05:59.

Harry Moore, who ran the one-lap 6K course in 58:54 and was awarded the oldest competitor prize for the 6th year running.

Thanks to Derek Boles and North Perrott Cricket Club for the excellent organisation plus Garry Perratt for being the race referee.

Shaves Cross run is a wonderful low key and rural experience. A five mile run starting mostly uphill towards Pilsdon Penn followed by a mad race down fields to the finish. Kevin Hawker of Honiton RC was the victor.

First AVR home and first lady was Eleanor Wood followed by Graham Newton enjoying the Dorset countryside and an AVR junior who ran really strongly. Siobhan Reddy was next home and was pleased with her run.

Harry Moore completed the AVR gang in the same time as last year, 74 mins, winning oldest male runner again for the 6th time.

Thanks to the organisers who put on a most enjoyable event with BBQ, Bar and other games.

Following last weekend's 70-miler, Garry Perratt decided to something a little shorter so invented the West Dorset Round, a 40-miler following the South Dorset Ridgeway and coast path. He and Alex Todd were initially accompanied by Eleanor Wood, Geoff Woodward and Andy Bowman. The five ran from Hardy Monument down to Osmington, along the coast path to Weymouth where they dodged the heaving crowds before meeting Geoff's wife Janet at Ferrybridge with copious amounts of food and chilled water.

Garry and Alex then pushed on ahead since the other three planned to cut back from Abbotsbury, only covering 33 miles or so, the slackers. Much of the conversation dried up altogether once Garry was left to Alex's idea of an easy pace!

Through Abbotsbury and on to West Bexington for milkshakes before the long, hard walk up to the ridge and the glorious run back along to the monument, just over 7½ hours after leaving it.

The other three took about 6½ hours.

HONITON RUNNERS

with Judy Davey

CREWKERNE Running Club's Hasebury Trail took place last Wednesday evening and the only Honiton Running Club representative was Ian Stewart.

The race is a two lap course of 10k starting and finishing at North Perrott Cricket Club.

There are a number of obstacles including countless stiles, footbridges and a for and one major climb which has to be taken twice, but it is relatively short and sharp.

Local Axe Valley Runner, Alex Todd, won the race in a time of 40 minutes 11 seconds and Ian finished in a very creditable 7th place in a time of 43:35. There were 91 runners.

Kevin Hawker and Wendy Williams of Honiton RC travelled to Shaves Cross last Saturday night to take part in the Shaves Cross Mini-Marathon. This is a tough five mile race celebrating its 65th Anniversary.

It started with two laps of a rutted field where the local fete was taking place, then up a hill over one mile long.

Kevin came home in first place in 29:50, over 90 seconds ahead of the runner who finished in second place, winning a huge trophy to keep for the year. Wendy had a great run coming in 61st out of 85 runners, having a storming second half of the race which had a tough uphill finish to the fete.

Nick Bradley-Carter, Sam Shute and Graham Reeves took part in the Totnes 10k last Sunday morning. The journey down was in near torrential rain at times, and didn't ease until just before the start, when the clouds parted slightly and the sun came out for most of the race.

The course was very wet and muddy; one puddle was nearly waist deep as Graham found out.

Graham led the Honiton runners home despite feeling unwell during the race finishing in 60th place in 46:57. Nick was next home in 181st place and happy with his time of 55:47, Sam was next in 363rd place with a time of 67-50.

Cairns pondering future

IMOGEN Cairns is considering her future as an international gymnast after competing in the London Olympics WRITES KEVIN FAHEY.

The 23-year-old, whose family live in the east Devon village of Southleigh, near Colyton, was left disappointed when not selected from the six-strong squad to perform on the floor in Tuesday's team final.

Cairns, who was competing in her second Olympics after making her debut in Beijing four years ago, said she would take time out to consider her future but hinted that it would definitely still lie in athletics but with more emphasis on coaching.

She already works with her own coach Liz Kincaid at The Academy of Gymnastics in Portishead, north Somerset and that is clearly wide of the sport she would like to develop in the years ahead.

"People were telling me before the Olympics to sort out what I was going to do afterwards but, because of how hard it was to get here, I couldn't put any thoughts into anything else," said Cairns.

"I do a lot of choreography and I might go with that. I know the direction I'm going to go - I'm going to stick with gymnastics, because it's all I know and I'm really interested in it.

"It just depends on how long I keep competing."

The lure of competing at the Commonwealth Games, in Glasgow, in two years time might keep Cairns in the sport. As a three-times Commonwealth Games champion the event has fond memories for Cairns and ending her career in Scotland would be attractive.

But for the moment Cairns is enjoying life in the athletes' village and taking the opportunity to catch up with other sports.

Hugely successful Senior Captain's day at Axe Cliff

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

SENIOR CAPTAIN'S DAY

ON a fine, but blustery, day last Friday Senior Captain, Rob Grove, invited members of the Axe Cliff Golf Club to participate in an individual stableford competition to celebrate his Captain's Day.

With numerous prizes on offer it was no surprise that there was a large field of entrants. Having been given a complimentary ball marker, ball and pen by the Captain at the start of their round, players were also asked to cope with other competitions on various holes as well as a blustery wind from a direction uncommon to Axe Cliff members.

It was not surprising therefore that the range of scores reflected the diversity of the morning.

The winner of Division One, and presented with the Captain's Day shield, was John Pugh (18) with 36 points, 2nd was Dave Morgan (17) with 35 points and 3rd was Bill Polley (16) with 32 points.

The winner of Division Two, and receiving the Cooper Shield, was Bob Flay (21) with 33 points who beat Nick Stanton (23) on the back nine. In 3rd place was Pete Motson (28) with 32 points. Nearest the pin winners were: David Sammons (7th), Geoff Hubbard (11th) and Gerry Turner (18th).

The prizes for nearest the pin on the 14th hole and nearest, in two shots, on the 5th hole were beyond the capabilities of all the players.

The hidden holes prizes were shared between Peter Knighting and Keith Wilson with the front nine prize being shared by John White and Rob Heard.

The back nine was won outright by Leighton Morgan. There were two 2's by Sid Pember and Geoff Hubbard both on the 11th hole. All the prize winners were presented with their gifts by long-serving ex-member, Morrison Brown.

There was a great atmosphere in the clubhouse afterwards where the players were treated to drinks and a buffet lunch provided by the Captain where many players agreed that this was one of the best day's golf they had experienced for many years.

SENIORS SECTION

LAST Wednesday the Seniors travelled to High Bickington for the annual inter-club match with Libbaton.

Axe Cliff had difficulty coming to terms with their extreme slickness of the greens and suffered a heavy 5-1 defeat. Gerry Turner & Jack Bannister recorded the only win.

Eight members recently played in the annual pairs Texas Scramble at Taunton Vale. In fine golfing conditions, the scoring was very good and although three of the teams recorded scores in the 60s, they just failed to make the prize list.

LADIES' SECTION

LAST Wednesday's Invitation day saw the ladies of Axe Cliff invite two ladies from other clubs to play in a Stableford Competition with one score to count on the par four, two scores on the par fives and all three scores to count on the par threes.

The weather was not the greatest - strong winds and heavy showers and even thick fog when play had to be suspended for a time!

The eventual winners, with a combined score of 62, were Julia Collins from Lyme Regis with Sheila Grant from Taunton Vale and home player Lesley Crawford.

Second place went to Val Waites and Jane Dixon from Lyme Regis with Glenda Board (Axe Cliff) with 58 points. Mona Carter from Honiton and Lila Lambert from Lyme Regis with their home player Helen Kenworthy finished third with 57 points.

Taking fourth place were Lady Captain Barbara Cummings, Hayley Rowland from Lyme Regis and Brenda Somerfield from East Devon with 56 points. Hayley Rowland also received the prize for nearest the pin on the 11th.

MONTHLY STABLEFORD

JUDGING by the scoring Sunday's monthly Stableford seems to have been a hard fought affair.

First in Division One was Ed Reece with 35pts. Derek Richards took second on count back from Steve Bromby who both had 32pts.

In Division Two had Fred Thomas was first with 35 ahead of Darren England 34 and Kevin Thompson 33.

TUESDAY MIXED

THIS week the Tuesday Mixed had their usual monthly draw and played a greensome to win the goblets.

Thirty two players competed, and in first place were Sally Chapman & Terry Dimond with an amazing score of 45 points. In second place were Linda McLaughlin & Allan Seager with 36. Also with 36 were Catherine Doherty & Dave Morgan in 3rd place with Susan Hyde & Charlie Doherty in 4th place.

Many thanks to Laurie and Maureen Tollemache for their superb organization during July.

LADIES SECTION

YES it was Wet, Wet, Wet again! But that did not deter the winner of the Bowerman Cup on Wednesday.

Carol Cole battled through it all to come out on top with a well deserved winning score of 34 Stableford points, just ahead of runner-up Sarah Loader with 33.

In the monthly Stableford competition the Silver Division winner was Sarah Loader with 33 points, while Ann Trayling made 2nd with 31. Jenny Reason came home with 29 to win the Bronze One Division, followed by Linda Blundell in 2nd with 27, and Linda Northover in 3rd with 25.

In Bronze Two Division Rosemary Whitely's great score of 32 points secured her 1st place, in front of Pam Greenaway in 2nd with 29, and Julie Eyles with 28.

SENIORS SECTION

THE seniors' Texas Scramble was a very close-run affair with less than one and a half points covering all four prize-winning teams.

John Fleetwood, John Kerr & Paul Ritchie led the field with 64 points, closely followed by Jim Wallis, Alan Bacon & John Ward on 64.4.

Bob Cleal, Phil Donne-Davis & Oliver Wilson edged out Andy Sharland, Alex Lynn & Ken Beake to take third spot.

The best shot of the day was a hole-in-one at the second by Fred Utting. He won a double dose of golf balls for his efforts, and Bob Underwood presented him with a tankard in recognition of his achievement.
